SIA New Product Showcase Award Winners Announced at ISC West in Las Vegas

March 29, 2007, LAS VEGAS — RSIalarm, Inc.'s Videofied VIA-Pro Intrusion Alarm was named “Best of NPS” at SIA's 2007 New Product Showcase (NPS) held March 27-28, 2007, in Las Vegas in conjunction with ISC West. More than 90 new products and services were unveiled at the event.

Established in 1977, SIA's NPS is the industry's premier marketing and awards program recognizing innovation in product design. At this year's event, 19 judges representing a cross-section of the industry spent nearly two full days evaluating contest entries on pricing, innovation, product features, and functionality.

SIA President Bill Gorski, Siemens Building Technologies, NPS Committee Chair Sandra Jones, Sandra Jones and Co., and SIA Executive Director Richard Chace presided over the March 28 awards ceremony.
