

COLECTIVA GALLERY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

For additional information, contact:

Sara Freedenfeld

781-789-8976

sara@colectivagallery.com

THE RISING STARS TO OF THE JCK LAS VEGAS 2008 JOIN FORCES AND HIT THE ROAD TOGETHER

New York, NY, June 20, 2008 – Four talented, up and coming designers have come together under their new umbrella company, Colectiva Gallery, in order to strengthen the presence of new, fresh ideas in the jewelry industry and collaborate on exciting, unique concepts as a unified team. These groundbreaking designers met in an unparalleled fashion and under exciting circumstances, having each been selected by a prestigious group of industry leaders for their trade show debut as “The 2008 Rising Stars of the JCK”. There was an immediate bond between the four creative young entrepreneurs during this remarkable event, and by weeks end, Amáli, Ginger Peachy, Jessica DiRubio Jewelry, and Rebecca Overmann, were four special talents united! By combining their knowledge of the industry and capitalizing on their novelty, Colectiva Gallery is poised to become a powerful force in the jewelry industry. We invite you to visit our new website, www.ColectivaGallery.com.

The 2008 Rising Stars that created Colectiva Gallery are:

- Amáli ~ Drawing inspiration from the natural landscapes and colorful textiles that punctuated her travels through South America, Amáli designer Sara Freedenfeld set out to create a line of jewelry that delicately unites the natural simplicity of handcrafted artistry with the sophistication and glamour of high fashion. Most recently Amáli Jewelry has been seen adorning Tyra Banks on America's Next Top Model, and Tori Spelling on the cover of People Magazine.
www.AmaliJewelry.com
- Ginger Peachy ~ Ginger Peachy Designs was created by Brooke Corson and Jodi Zorensky. Ginger Peachy fashions dazzling rings, bracelets, earrings and necklaces from gold, diamonds and colored stones. Their designs are contemporary yet timeless in their appeal. Ginger Peachy creates attainable pieces of wearable art that radiate a woman's inner beauty. www.GingerPeachyDesigns.com
- Jessica DiRubio Jewelry ~ Combining classic elegance and striking color, designer Jessica DiRubio creates wearable pieces which conjures up a breath of fresh air. Using 18k green gold, diamonds and handpicked semi precious stones, Jess has created a quite a stir. She takes inspiration from the simplicity of nature, the complexity of architecture and most importantly the grace and style of her Grandmother. Currently her designs have graced the pages of Connecticut Cottages and Gardens, The Westchester gift guide, Concerige.com, At Home Magazine and the necks of stars in the upcoming movie The Women; starring Annette Benning, Meg Ryan and Debra Messing to name a few.
www.JessicaDiRubio.com
- Rebecca Overmann ~ Her collections are expressed with clarity, simplicity and elegance. Sculpted shapes and kinetic lines reveal a graceful structure balanced by movement. Necklaces, earrings and rings are created in high-forged 18K gold, oxidized sterling silver, enamel and diamonds. www.RebeccaOvermann.com