

The Authors Studio at BEA 2010

Send your author on “tour”
via a sponsored BEA podcast

May 25-27, 2010
Jacob K. Javits Center, New York City

Give your authors an opportunity to record a three or five minute audio interview podcast. Podcasts will be available on the BEA Web site and distributed on a special feed (www.bookexpocast.com/authors-studio) to iTunes and across the Web through BookExpoCast.

You can also use the podcast and MP3 file for your own online promotion and marketing, and play the podcast directly from your website.

BEA 2009 podcasting results:

- Nearly 100,000 people came to the BEA podcast Web site, www.bookexpocast.com
- Those users visited that same Web site nearly 200,000 times
- Nearly 1 million page views.
- Nearly 150,000 podcast episodes were downloaded – Authors Studio and BEA podcasts combined.

The 2010 Authors Studio will be open both days of the show, but have a limited number of recording slots, so reserve early.

How The Podcast Works

Think of podcasting as your author’s own radio show!...and a world-wide audience has the freedom to listen to your show wherever they are, whenever they like! Podcasting allows your iPod, MP3, and Internet users to download, and playback, your author’s recorded interview.

You decide whether you want a three- or a five-minute interview. You pick the questions. You send us a JPEG of the book cover, a one-paragraph summary and ISBN information. We will reserve a spot for you at the Authors Studio during BEA. And then our Emmy-winning interviewer will make your author shine.

A few weeks after the show, we will post the podcast on our website and let you know when it’s live. We will send you a customized “player widget” (see example to the right) to play the podcast directly on your or your author’s website. And of course, you will be able to download the podcast (or link to it) to use it for any kind of promotion or marketing that you want.

The podcast will be archived for a minimum of six months on the BookExpoCast Authors Studio page (www.bookexpocast.com/authors-studio).

Why Podcasting Works

- Anyone can listen by signing up free via iTunes for an automatic download, visiting www.bookexpocast.com/authors-studio and listing from your computer or by downloading the file onto any MP3 player.
- Podcasting is viral; it lives and breathes and can be shared and passed around. You will receive a permalink URL and customized widget to promote your podcast episode; you can embed this link or the widget in your site, your author's site, or even send it by email.
- Users may download the MP3 and distribute as widely as possible; you too can use the MP3 for promotional purposes
- Your author may also be found on our site through a search function
